Pioneers

The West has long been known for its hardy pioneers and the part they played in the development of the United States. Civilization has advanced greatly since the first settler entered the West, and yet even today one can still find those with the pioneer spirit.

Cortez is truly a pioneer in its own way. Its students have come a long way since that very first day when school opened with no coolers, no sidewalks, no grass, and unfinished classrooms.

Just as the West had all the raw materials for building a fine country, Cortez had all the ingredients to make an outstanding school.

This annual, along with many other achievements, is a product of the spirit of the students of Cortez.

To a great
 kid. Study hall
 & library has been a blast with you!
 Good luck,
 Sue Evans

Dedication

We, the staff of Cortesians, believe in Cortez High School. We believe that Cortez will continue on in its quest for a prominent position in the ranks of fine high schools. We are confident that its traditions and personality will be carried forth by the generations of students to come.

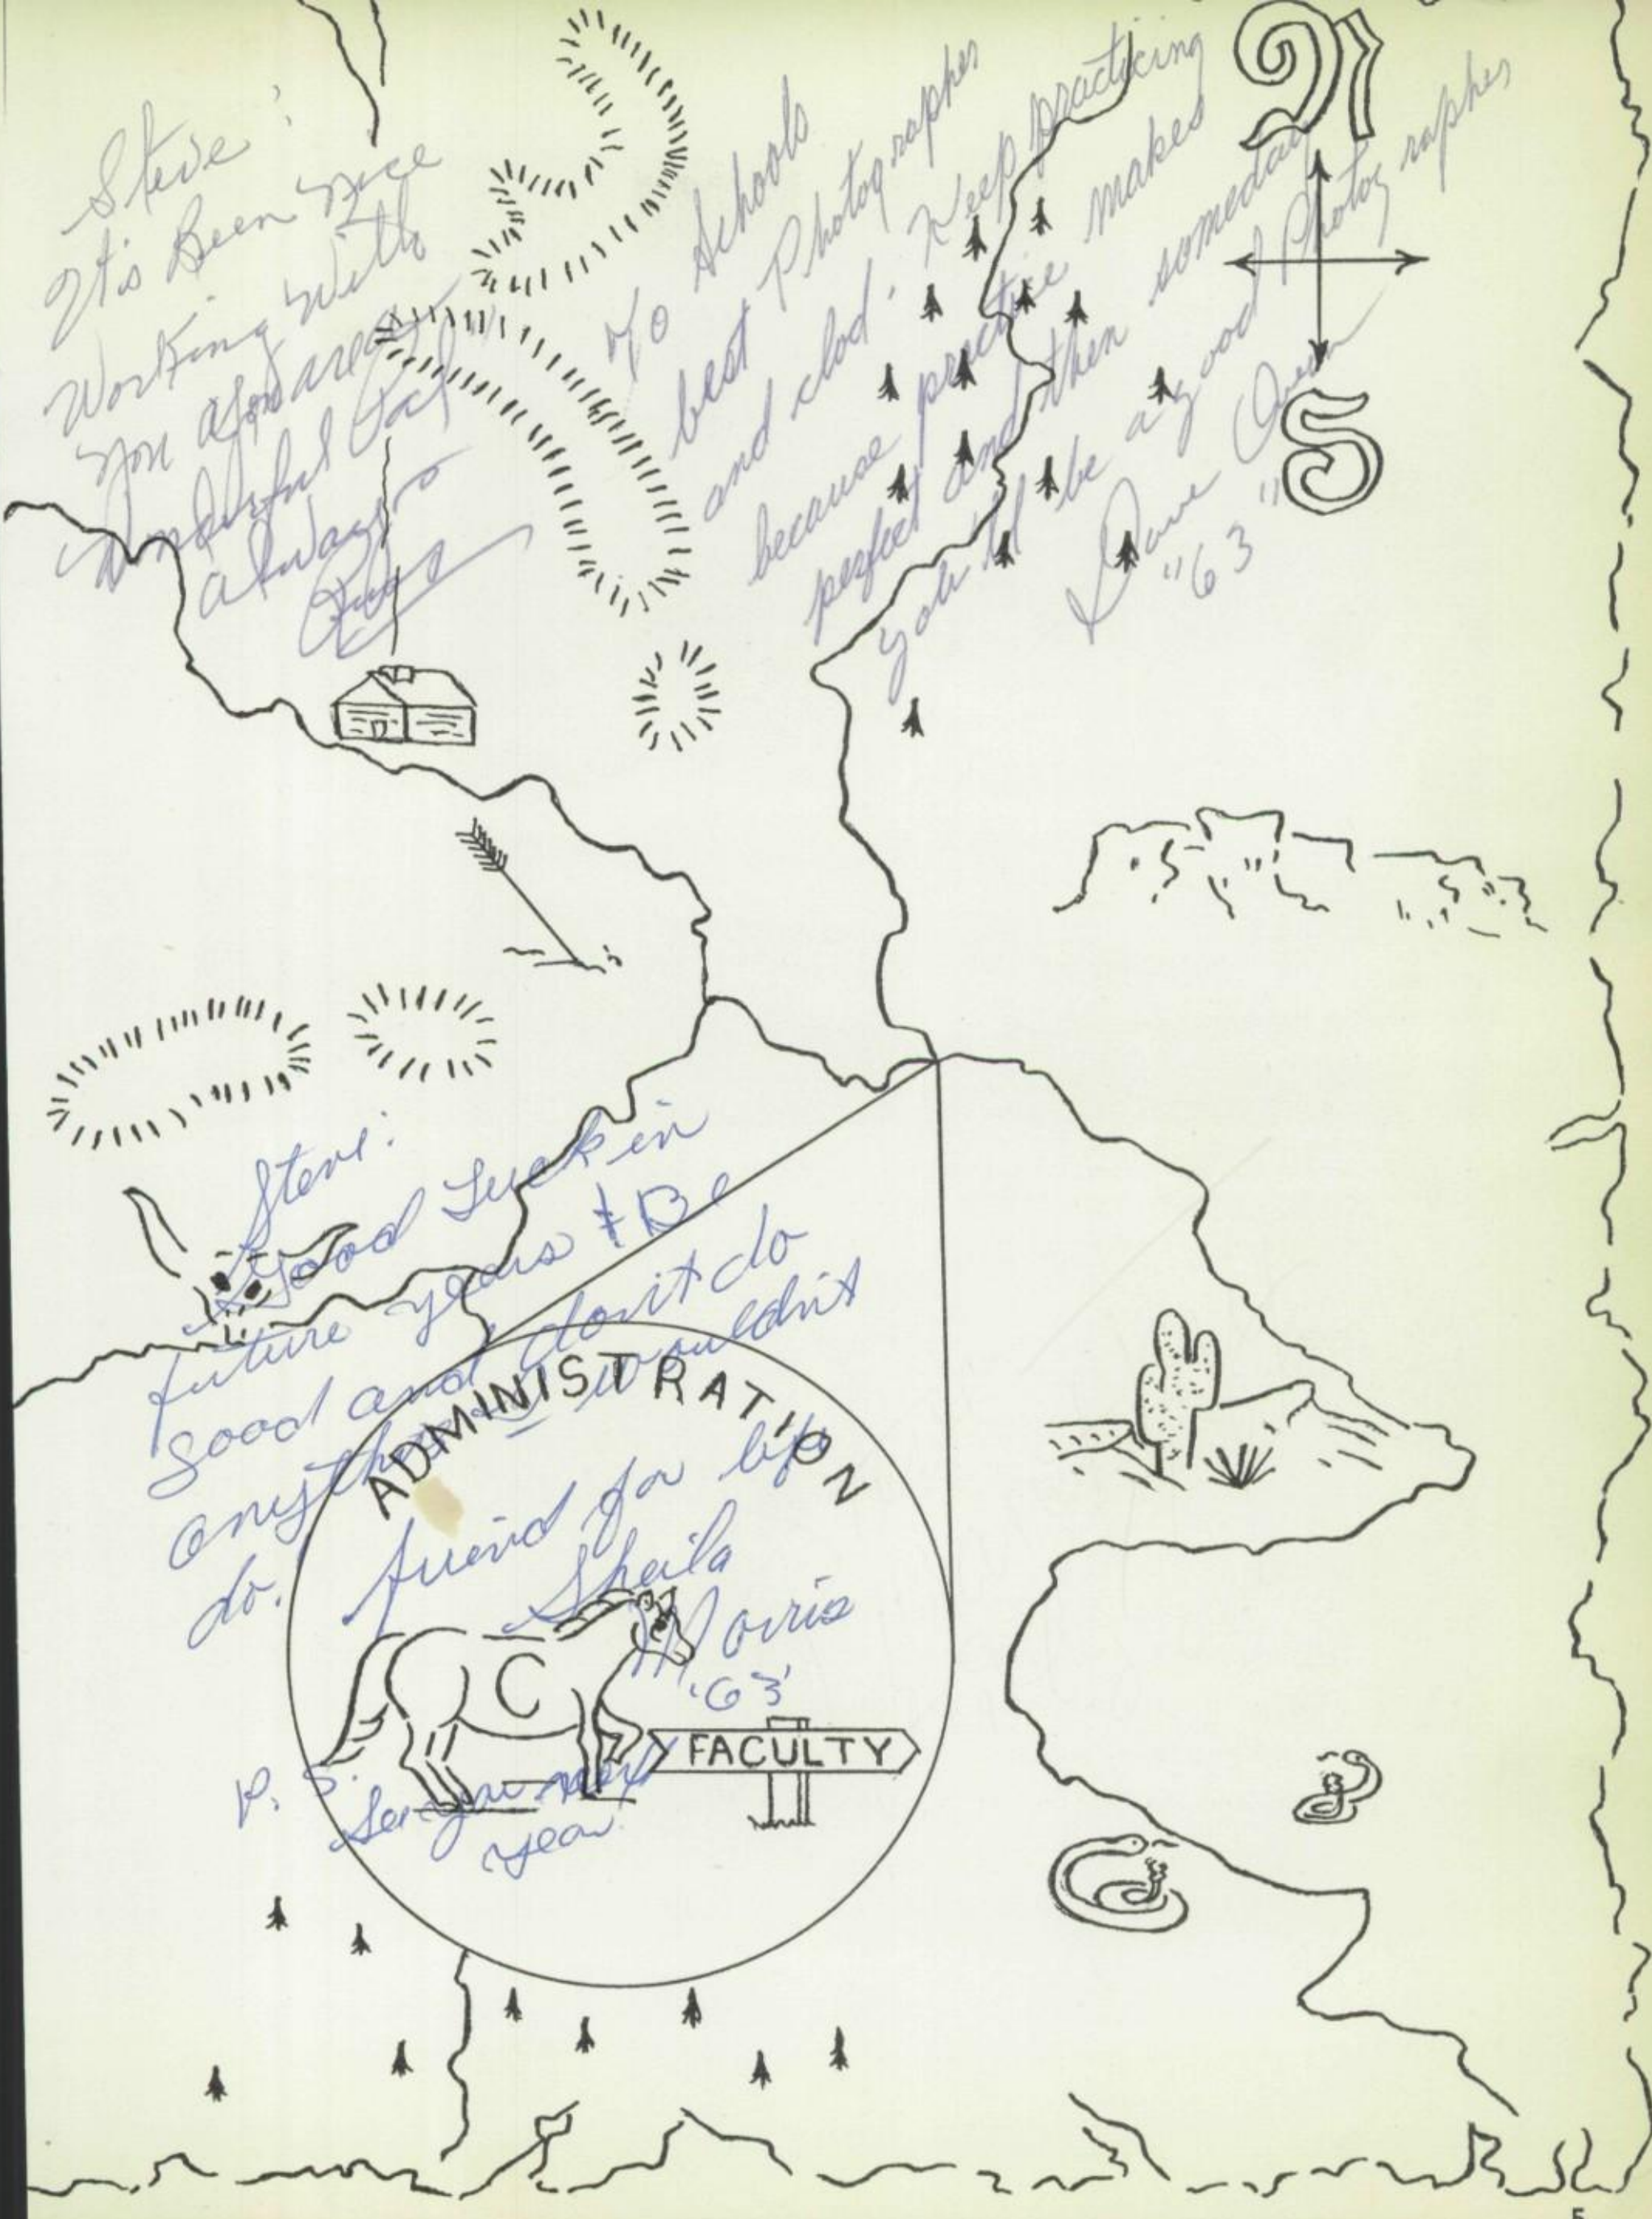

It is with these beliefs in mind that we dedicate this first annual to Mr. Max Kaslo, who has given of himself completely these first two years. We are confident that he will continue to provide the leadership that a high school such as Cortez deserves.

Mr. Kaslo, it is your undivided attention to the needs, wants, and welfare of the students that we salute in our dedication to you.

Principal

Congratulations to the students of Cortez. This Annual is a montage of your experience here. The Colts are known throughout Arizona for their pep, imagination, and leadership. In less than two years you have "put us on the map."

As Principal, I appreciate your leadership and effervescent school spirit. During our short history you have made your mark in the many areas (remember that last football game!)—including sports, music, and science. The many fine and colorful social events have resulted in deep and lasting friendships.

As you turn these pages, memories will be refreshed and in time this book will be a treasury of joys, hopes, and satisfactions you experienced here.

Best wishes,

Max Kaslo

"Now where does this page go?" questions Mr. Darrell Hatch, annual instructor.

Cortesians

The annual staff worked very hard to produce the first CHS annual. There were many days which stretched late into the evening hours which these people forfeited to put this annual out.

Billie Barbera, Co-Editor, divides students' pictures into class sections.

Steve, one of my favorite buddies (even if he does call me "buddy"). Best of luck at Cortes. Love, Billie

Ed Bauer enlarges a print for the annual.

Staff

The annual could have never been completed without the capable leadership of Mr. Hatch. He fearlessly entered into annual work without the slightest inclination of all the hard work and painstaking hours involved, but he has found it most rewarding.

Kathy Rogers works industriously on her section.

Looking over page layouts are Billie Barbera and Janice Holtorf.

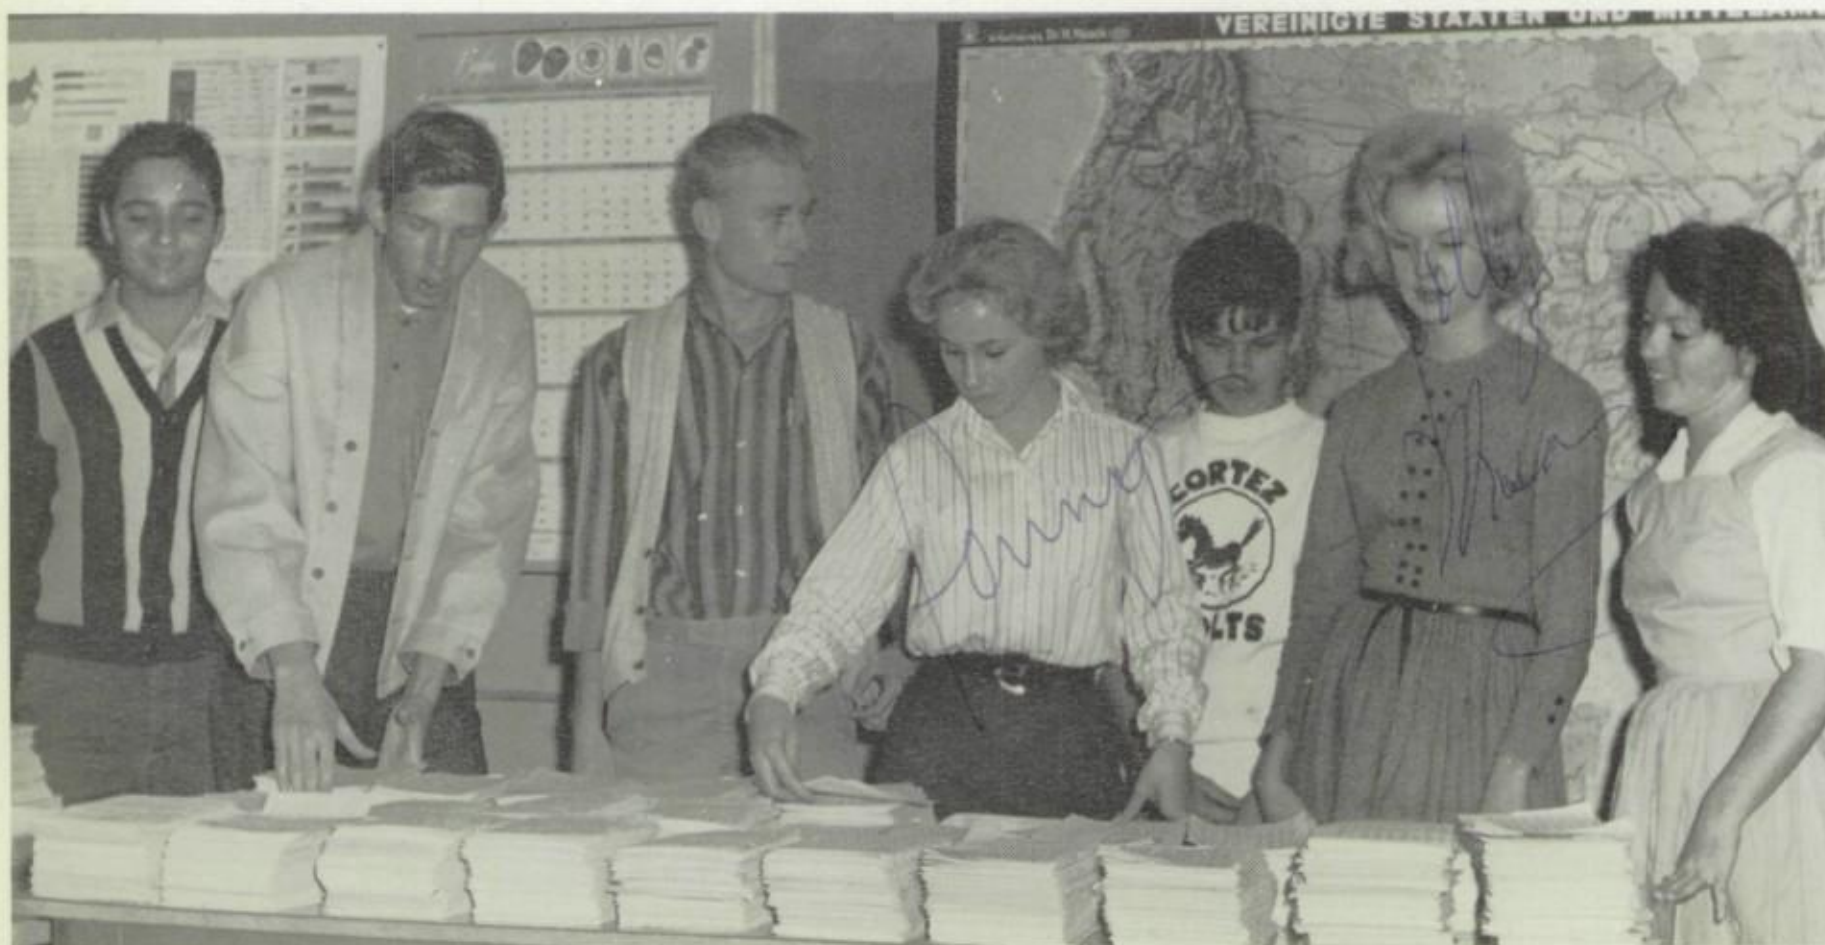

Harriet Lessem sells an annual subscription to Cookie Sanchez.

Coaches Charles Milo and Don Holley point to their team's especially fine record. They were well pleased with Cortez this year.

Cortez finished its first Varsity Season with a successful 7 win 2 loss record.

The Colts played in Class A North, Eastern Division, in which they finished second to the Winslow Bulldogs.

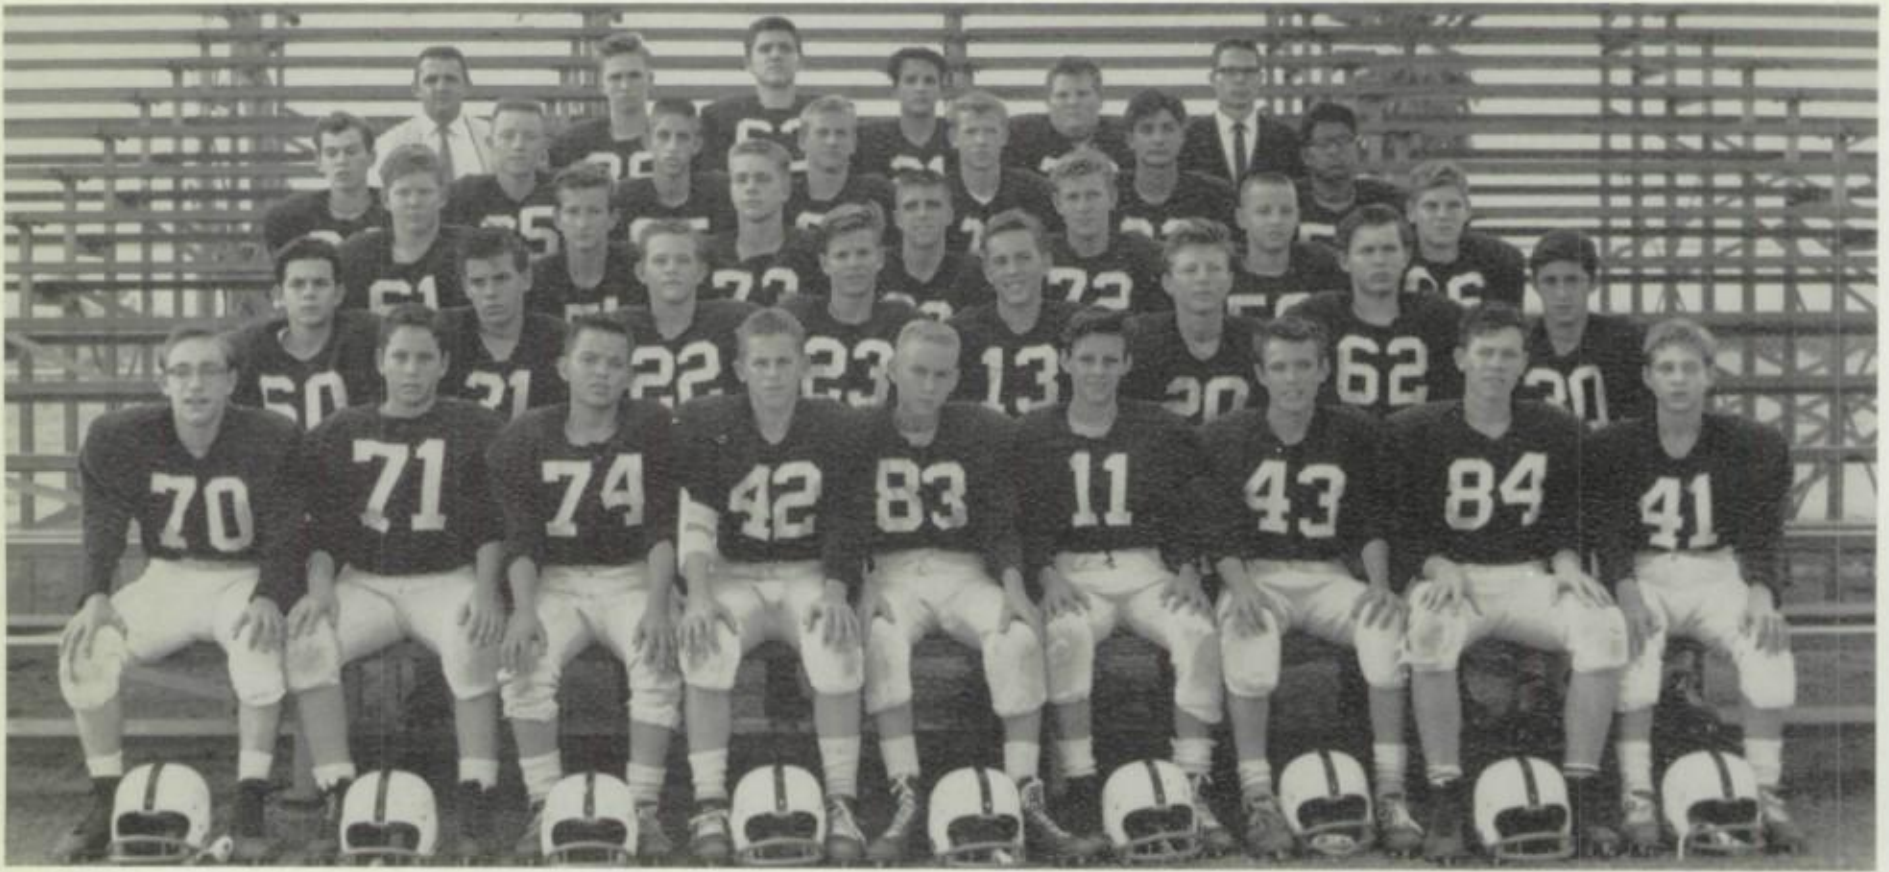

The loss to Winslow was in the early part of the season when the Colts were still relatively inexperienced. The only other loss was to Peoria, the first game of the season.

As experience was gained, the team improved greatly, taking over second place by whipping the favored Chandler 28-7. The Colts got nothing but better as they met and beat all-comers, after their early losses.

The season was climaxed by the upset of heavily-favored Glendale 27-13. This intra-district game was the one the boys really wanted to win. Cortez went into the game full of desire to win, which is what turned the tables on the bewildered Cardinals.

Pacing the Colts to their spectacular season were backs Rick Hendershot, Joel Barnhill, Don Dyer, and John Bushong. Hendershot carried for a total of 582 yards, averaging 6.8 yards per carry, a new school record. Bushong and Barnhill followed with 473 yards and 443 yards, averaging 5.8 and 8.4 yards respectively. Dyer passed for 426 yards, averaging 42% completions. In total points it was Barnhill, Hendershot, and Bushong, with 72, 48, and 29 points.
